In re the disposal of the Sannidhi Parichariké and Sri Pada post of the Sri Ranganatheswamy temple at Sreerangapatam

From

The Dy. Commr. Mysore Dist.

No. 90/682 Dated 22 August 1905.

Hags A. B + C)

One Jeganmma alias Singamma has addressed the marginally noted petitions to H H. the Maharaja stating that Chokkanjengar, her husband, who died on the 21st Octr. 1900 was holding the posts of Sannidhi Parichark (pay Rs 4/ per mensem) and Sri Pada (pay Rs 2/ per mensem) in the Sri Ranganath Swamy temple at Sreerangapatam and praying that the hararawara of these posts may be transferred to her name, a substitute being appointed to look after the duties. These petitions were refd. to this office for disposal, by the Private Secretary to H H the Maharaja.

One Rajiengar minor Son of the deceased Sreeniwasiengar (uncle of chokkaniengar (Page 1 left to) has addressed, through Alamelamma his mother and guardian, petitions to this office praying that, as chokkaniengar has no ~~male~~ issues, the karawars may be transferred to his name, the duties thereof being attended to by a gumastha till he attains ~~the age of~~ majority.

These petitions having been forwarded to the Dy. Commr. for report, that offr has submitted a detailed report thereon together with the Verm papers relating thereto.

From the Verm pp. it is observed as follows:—

The original karawarddar of Sannidhi Parichariké and Sri Pada post of the Sri Ranganathaswamy temple and the Valaguty Venkataramanaswamy (Page 2 Parichariké was one Krishnaiengar, who dies issueless. Devarajiengar, his relative, was thereupon doing the duties as gumastha and subsequently the karawars is reported to have been made out in his name.

From a

A copy of the Sale deed of 20th Decr 1894. produced by Alamelamma and certified to by the Temple Peshkar as being a true copy of the orgl. ~~ancestral title papers filed with the records, pertaining~~ it is observed that one Krishnaswamy, adopted son of Devarajiengar refd to. and his natural brother Garuda char Sold the appointments, in the hereditary enjoyment of their family, viz the Sannidhi Sancharaka and Sri Vaishnavi Venkatanarasimhaswami Sannidhi Archaka and Sri Vaishnavi Bada posts to Chokkaniengar, deceased husband of the petr. Yeggamma, and ~~Valagadi Venkatarama Iyengar Sancharaka~~ to Srinivasiengar, uncle of Chokkaniengar for Rs 230/, and have given up all their title and interest thereto. Thus it is clear the posts held by Chokkaniengar were his Self-acquired property, and appears to have been enjoyed by him till his death while he was alive, he had defeated his uncle's first Son Laksmianarasimhacha

This case has not been adjudicated upon by any subordinate authority altho' under G. O. 35-44 Muzrai dated 8th July 1901 asstt the amildar has to decide it in the first instance and the Dy or Asstt. Commissioner in first appeal.

In the claim preferred by Gangamma there is also a contention that the offices in question had been acquired by her husband the last holder by purchase and are not a hereditary ones. If the lower authorities had recorded a finding on this point and on its validity or otherwise, it could have been seen whether the case itself falls within the jurisdiction of the Council Committee. It is therefore suggested that this case which may be submitted to the Council for orders before posting.

Sir,

In reply to your Official Memorandum No 2185 dated 7th May 1903, I have the honor to state that one Chokkaniengar, the petitioner's hus
-band, who was looking after the duties of "Olagudi Parichanike" in the Sri Ranganatha swami temple at Seringapatam, is since dead leaving no issues. The deceased Chokkaniengar has an undivided nephew by name D Srinivasiengar alias Rajiengar, a minor.

2. As the appointment is a respon-sible one, and as the petitioner is reported to be not a resident of that place, and as she is a minor entitled only to a main-tenance, the Sub Division Officer recom-mends that the barawad may be made in the name of the minor nephew Rajeeppa who is a solvent resident of that place and a gumastha by name Lyanjam Hara-Shivachar may be appointed to look after the duties during the minority.

3. I request that Government may be pleased to accord sanction to the recom-mendation of the Sub Division Officer.

4. The Enclosures are herewith submitted for perusal and Kind return.

Chokkanimgar, the former incumbent, was the Bommadoor of two appointments in the said temple, viz, ~~one was~~ "Olagudi Parichoruk's" appointment and ~~another~~ "Sarpadar" post; but the Dy. Comr's recommendation refers to only the former and nothing is said about the latter.

Iyengar, who is reputed to have no ...

One Devanajaiyengar, a relative of N. S. Iyengar, was doing the duties of ... and subsequently the baraward is reputed to have been made out in his name.

Devanajaiyengar adopted one Krishnaswamy who, with his natural brother Gyanadeva, sold the Samidhi Paracharika and Sripada pooja to Chockkamiengar, and Vellagundi Venkatāramana Swamy Parichariki to Srinivasiengar, uncle of Chockkamiengar for Rs 230/- on 20th December 1894 as can be seen from the copy of a sale deed (Vide Ferist no: 44) 5

The Sub Division officer of French Rocks has in his order No. 1136 dated 26/27th Dec 94. approved of the above action (vide Ferist no 53). As the earlier records relating to this order of the Sub Division officer are reported to be missing, it is not possible to say why the rival claimants Viz Appramiengar and Rajiengar did not urge their claims when the baraward was made out in the name of Chockkam- 8

4. It is reported that, while Chockkalingam was alive, his uncle's 1st Son Lakshmi Narasimha Char was doing the duties of Samidhi Paricharike and Sripada, and he continued to do so even after the death of Chockkalingam - After the death of the said Lakshmi Narasimhachar, Mr. N. Venkata Rao, the then Sub-Division officer of French Rocks, recommended, in his Yadi No. 1446 dated 22nd May 1903, that the Guruward of the aforesaid post might be ordered to be made out in the name of his minor brother Srinivasa Iyengar alias Rajaiyengar, Ganjam Narasimha Char being appointed to officiate as his Gumasta - A recommendation was accordingly made to you by the then Deputy Commissioner Mr. M. Kantaraj Urs in his letter No. 50 dated 7-9-1903.

5. Ganjam Narasimha Char is reported to be doing the duties now.
